

NATIONAL IRRIGATION CONGRESS HAS BIG WORK

40,000,000 Acres of Arid Land to Yet be Reclaimed by United States Government

SPOKANE, Wash., June 1.—Regarding the importance of the work of the National Irrigation Congress, which will have its 17th session in Spokane, August 9th to 14th, R. Insinger, Chairman of the Board of Control, says: "The National Reclamation Act was passed in 1902. At that time there were in the government's name, in the sixteen states affected, 600,000,000 acres of arid land, of which it was estimated possible to reclaim sufficient to support 50,000,000 people. By 1911 the Reclamation Service will have reclaimed nearly 2,000,000 acres, at an estimated cost of $70,000,000. There are 40,000,000 acres of arid lands susceptible to reclamation by irrigation. The construction cost of the reclamation works is returned to the government from the sale of land, the proceeds to be again used in furthering irrigation development. Irrigation is making a garden spot and an empire of the "Great American Desert," and the work of the irrigation congress is yet in its infancy."

George E. Barstow, Texas, is president of the congress; B. A. Fowler, Phoenix, Arizona, secretary; R. Insinger of Spokane, chairman of the board of control; and Arthur Hooker, Spokane, secretary of the board of control.

MAN FLEES FROM SPOT OF POLTERA MURDER

Fires Two Shots at Officers and Escapes Finally Into the Hills

LOS ANGELES, June 2.—An unknown prowler, overtaken yesterday afternoon at the spot where Anna Poltera's dead body was found, fired two shots from a revolver at two officers, and then fled into the hills. He was followed by the officers but escaped them. From a fleeting glimpse, the officers say he looked like a Chinaman.

The long looked for watercress man, with whom Anna sometimes rode, has been found, but knows nothing of the murder.

Ben Elliott is still in jail serving a 30-day sentence. It is said he will be held still longer.

Two Chinese were arrested and taken to jail at 1 o'clock this morning, following an alleged confession made by a Chinaman, Charley Ling, who said he saw a white man murder the girl on Monday evening.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR REACHES LOS ANGELES

Bears Gold Medal for Frisco in Congratulation for Swift Rise From Disaster

LOS ANGELES, June 2.—Ambassador and Madame Jusserand arrived at the Alexandria last evening loaded down with flowers and surrounded by the notables of the city.

The French ambassador is on his way to San Francisco to present to that municipality a gold medal, the only one struck, by order of his government, as a mark of congratulation at the resurrection of that city from the disaster of three years ago.

SEARCH FOR WIFE AND CHILDREN LOST IN QUAKE

SEATTLE, June 2.—After having traveled thousands of miles, and having crossed the Atlantic twice, H. W. Anderson is today searching the exposition grounds for his wife and two children, from whom he became separated during the earthquake at San Francisco.

Anderson was injured in the quake, and when he recovered his wife and child were missing. Unable to learn if they had escaped death, he went to their old home in England, and there learned that they were alive, on the Pacific coast. He got a trace of them in Portland, then in Seattle, where his wife had a prospect of working at the exposition. He has been unable to find them so far.

WATERY ENDING OF A VALIENT FLIGHT

Goodwin's Airship Went From Hoboken to Jersey City—Fell in the Hudson

NEW YORK, June 2.—Frank Goodwin today made one of the longest aerial flights ever attempted in this vicinity. In a Strobile dirigible airship he flew from the Palisades opposite the upper end of Manhattan Island, over Hoboken to Jersey City. He then swung over the Hudson river to General Grant's tomb, where he collided with a tree, but after repairs, re-ascended. While crossing the Hudson he again fell into the river and was rescued and the balloon was towed ashore.

Coupled with the transmission of the invitations was the assurance of this government that favorable action on the part of the nations would be regarded as an honor to the United States.

JUDGE LAWLER AT END OF PATIENCE

Warns Attorneys Wordy Strife Must Cease—Threat Followed a Row

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Judge Lawler, reaching the end of his patience today, warned the attorneys on both sides of the Calhoun case that he will punish them for contempt if their wordy strife does not cease.

The warning was precipitated by an exchange of words between Attorney Earl Rogers of the defense, and John Helms, the prosecution detective on the witness stand. Helms testified that he personally delivered to Patrick Calhoun the papers alleged to have been stolen from the office of Special Agent Burns. Rogers exclaimed: "Don't you know you're a perjurer?" Helms advanced menacingly upon Rogers and defied him to prove it. The court officers intervened, and the participants were quieted.

ANAHEIM MAN WAS CHOSEN INSPECTOR TODAY

First National Secures Common School Bonds, Adams Got $25,000 Bonds

SUNDAY CLOSING WAS KNOCKED OUT

New Ordinance Prohibits Ministers and Card Playing in Poolrooms

Dr. W. S. McFarlane of Anaheim, was this afternoon elected county stock inspector. The vote was unanimous. McFarlane was stock inspector under the former county ordinance, with a salary of $1000 per year. When the new ordinance was put into effect, Dr. Stevens of Santa Ana, was elected stock inspector. Failing to qualify, the position was again open to appointment. Every veterinary surgeon in the county except Dr. Stevens, was a candidate for the appointment today.

The office now pays $1500 per year. Before the Board of Supervisors this morning the First National Bank of Santa Ana became the purchaser of the Santa Ana school bonds, the $50,000 issue voted recently for the grammar schools, and J. H. Adams & Co. of Los Angeles became the purchaser of the $25,000 high school bonds.

The bidding was very close. While the figure given by the State Board of Examiners was $16.50 higher than that given by the local bank, it was found that the bonds had to be delivered to the state board at Sacramento, the cost of transportation to be paid by the school district. It was found that the cost would be $1.50 per $1000. That made the First National Bank the best bidder of the two.

For the $50,000 bonds the First National Bank pays par, accrued interest and $1573.50. The $25,000 bonds were sold to J. H. Adams for par, accrued interest and $802.

The state board was represented by Mr. Deming. He said the purpose of the state board entering into competition is to secure for the school district the very best figure possible for the bonds.

The bonds all pay four and a half per cent interest and run twenty-five years.

Santa Ana school bonds, $50,000, each bidder bid par, accrued interest and the premiums named below.

State Board of Examiners, $1590; Halsey, $1341; Barroll & Co., $1250; Staats & Co., $1367; First National Bank of Santa Ana, $1573.50; Rollins & Son, $1380; Blymyer & Co., $1380; D. E. Bradley, $1265; J. H. Adams & Co., $1573.

Santa Ana high school bonds, $25,000; bidders bid par, accrued interest and the sums named, as follows: State Board of Examiners, $800; Halsey, $671; Barroll & Co., $615; Staats & Co., $768.50; First National Bank of Santa Ana, $787.50; Rollins & Son, $627.50; Blymyer & Co., $690; D. E. Bradley, $780; J. H. Adams & Co., $802.

H. C. Head and O. H. Coulter as a committee from the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County, were before the board this morning asking that the associated chambers be given the use of the $500 now remaining in the advertising fund. The matter was discussed at some length. Two members of the board thought the associated chambers should come forward with a definite plan of expenditure before the supervisors turned the money over to that body.

There was some question as to whether the $2000 annually allowed for advertising purposes is available

Scenes At Seattle's Great World's Fair

MANUFACTURERS BUILDING.

On the eastern side of Geyser Basin, at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, the handsome Manufacturers Building looks across the restless waters of the Cascades and the flashing foam of "Old Faithful," the reproduction of its namesake in Yellowstone National Park.

Its location is the most central of any of the exposition buildings, and its architectural design is especially fitting for the position it has been given. It was one of the first great exhibition palaces to be completed, and before the end of last year was ready for the reception of its vast collection of exhibits. It will house a magnificent assortment of the highest examples of man's ingenuity and invention, and within its walls will be gathered specimens of manufactured articles from the workshops of every nation of importance in the world.

It overlooks the finest of the formal gardens of the exposition, and its splendid line of pergolas, with their vine-covered columns and blossoming flowers, complete a restful and pleasing view. At no part of the grounds can be seen a more beautiful illuminating effect than is presented from the open pergolas during the late evening and early night. A million sparkling electric bulbs flash their white lights through the waters and, scattered throughout the greenery, hundreds of electrolights mingle their many hues with the riot of colors. Looking down the gentle slope of Rainier Avenue the floating craft of two lakes is brought into vision and adds the delights of a broad, light-sprinkled stretch of forest-enclosed waters to the whole effect.

$2925 FIRE LOSS IS YEAR'S RECORD

In Twelve Months Fire Department Called out Only Thirteen Times, Five of them False Alarms

In the last year the Santa Ana Fire Department was called out only thirteen times, just one half as many times as in the year previous. There were eight fires and in three only was damage suffered. The total loss by fire in Santa Ana for the last twelve months was $2925, of which $2500 occurred in one fire.

An August 15 the department was called to the Edison Electric plant, where a transformer had blown out. The damage was $400. Another fire in Edison Electric property occurred on Nov. 22, the damage being $25. On April 27 the tannery on C street burned with a loss of $2500. That fire was the first fire in Santa Ana that caused the loss of life. In this instance Isaac Clemens, one of the proprietors, was so badly burned in the explosion of gasoline that he died.

An average of about twenty-three firemen turned out on the thirteen calls. The total cost to the city for the calls was $483.

The total cost to the city for the calls was $483. Three of the calls came on one day, Dec. 18.

George E. Peters, secretary and treasurer, made his report to the Santa Ana Fire Department's annual meeting last night, and the above statements are taken from his report. The election of officers last night resulted as follows: Chief W. C. Young; first assistant chief, Ransom Reid; second assistant, R. S. Dickinson; president, E. G. Glenn; vice-president, E. E. Wood; secretary-treasurer, G. E. Peters.

After the business session last night ice cream and cake were served the firemen.

"Come at once. In grave danger and need protection. Mrs. Gussie Rogers."

Sheriff Wilson and a party of men departed at once for the scene which is 150 miles on the desert. Meanwhile constables have gone to the scene. It is believed that trouble has been started by an alleged attempt of the woman's husband to locate a "boom" town on the reservation, ousting peaceable Indians.

PANAMA SCANDAL CASE GOES UNTIL OCT. 11

Defendants Fight Removal to Washington—Government Asks for Delay

INDIANAPOLIS, June 2.—After hearing lengthy argument today, Federal Judge Anderson granted a delay asked for by the government, until October 11, in the Panama libel case against the Indianapolis News, in which proceedings looking toward the removal of the defendants to Washington for trial, are in progress.

Federal Prosecutor McNamara desired time in which to bring witnesses, including Norman Mack, Frank Hitchcock and George B. Cortelyou, to testify in the case. The probable summons of President Taft and former President Roosevelt precipitated an argument on the definition of legal residence.

DEFENDANTS FIGHT REMOVAL

Delevan Smith and Charles R. Williams, owners of the Indianapolis News, appeared before Judge Anderson yesterday, resisting the effort of the federal government to remove them for trial to the District of Columbia, the grand jury of which indicted them for publishing articles alleging corruption in the purchase of the Panama canal.

MENACE MEN WHO DARE TO TRY TO WORK

Militia Called Out at Capital—Are Ready to March at Instant's Notice

Lumber Company Ask for Aid; Strike Has Resolved Into Siege

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The strikers at McCloud are today parading the streets, uttering threats of death against any man daring to attempt to go to work, according to advices received here by J. H. Queal, president of the McCloud Lumber Co. He denied that the strikers had seized a railroad train, but admitted that they had effectually tied up the operations of the company. The strikers number six hundred, and have struck for an increase of twenty-five cents per day.

SOLDIERS READY TO START

SACRAMENTO, June 2.—Companies E and G of the Second Infantry, National Guard, are in marching trim and ready to leave on an instant's notice for the McCloud river region, the scene of the lumber strike. Adjutant-General Lauck said this morning that matters were pending until advices from Col. A. W. Bradbury, advising the dispatch of the troops, is received. Lauck said he expected word at any time today. The militia are carrying ten days' provisions.

Governor Gillett said this morning that troops would not be dispatched to McCloud until this evening if at all. He said that Sheriff Brown of Siskiyou had probably got cold feet. He should have attempted at least to make an arrest, as he has sixty deputies. The soldiers will be kept in readiness, however.

NEWS IS GUARDED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—Orders issued by the McCloud Lumber company at McCloud, where the striking lumbermen are reported to be in a dangerous mood, prevented news from being given out early. The lumber company owns the telephone line, and the operator said she was not allowed to give out information regarding the situation whether or not there had been rioting. The manager of the lumber company also refused to make a statement. Because of the reticence of the lumber officials the belief is growing here that the situation is more serious than at first reported.

ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED

Medical Society Banquetted Last Night—Symposium on "The Healing Art"

The twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Orange County Medical Society was celebrated last night by the society with a banquet held in the Merchants & Manufacturers' Association rooms in this city. The table was beautifully decorated and a delightful menu was served.

Dr. Wehrly, the outgoing president, appointed Dr. Freeman of Fullerton as installing officer, and the following were put into office for the ensuing year: President, Dr. J. L. Beebe, Anaheim; vice-president, Dr. C. C. Violett, Garden Grove; secretary, Dr. Ida Parker, Orange; treasurer, Dr. H. S. Gordon, Santa Ana; librarian, Dr. C. D. Ball, Santa Ana.

Following the banquet, Dr. Beebe presided as toastmaster. Dr. Wehrly delivered the annual address, his subject being "Isms and Fads." Dr. Dryer gave an interesting review of the history of the medical society since its founding twenty years ago. In the twenty years but three members of the society have died. Dr. Boyd, with a sketch of the life of Dr. W. B. Wall, presented resolutions concerning his death, which were spread upon the minutes.

"The Healing Art" was the subject of a symposium taken part in by Rev. Merkle of Anaheim, from the minister's standpoint, Prof. Vincent of Fullerton, from the educator's standpoint, and Attorney Forgy of Santa Ana, from the lawyer's standpoint.

At the banquet table were Dr. and Mrs. Beebe, Miss Pobst, and Rev. Merkle of Anaheim; Drs. and Mesdames Freeman and Davis, Prof. and Mrs. Vincent and Dr. Gobar of Fullerton; Dr. Parker and Miss Scarritt of Orange; Drs. and Mesdames Ball, Gordon, Dryer, Clark, Burlew, Wehrly, Forline, Robertson and Mills, Dr. and Miss Boyd, Miss Chilton, Mr. and Mrs. Forgy, Dr. Dobson and Roscoe Dobson of Santa Ana.

Prof. Lewis Delivered Addresses and Quartet From College Sang Songs

EL MODENA, June 1.—Saturday evening the Orange County Y. M. C. A. Secretary, S. Warren Douglas, and San Bernardino county's newly appointed county secretary, Mr. Gains of Fresno, were at the home of Wm. Crist and attended church on Sabbath. Professor Lewis of Whittier College and wife were guests of the pastor, Rev. Armstrong. Prof. Lewis occupied the pulpit Sabbath and gave the morning message. The Whittier college

lege Glee Club Quartet came from Whittier in Horace Baldwin's automobile and at the evening service they conducted a song service in a most acceptable way. The church choir gave two pieces.

Professor Lewis gave short talks to give the boys a chance to rest their voices. Altogether it was a most profitable day, a spiritual feast of good things. Herbert Bates of Villa Park was present in the interest of the State C. E. convention soon to be held at Pasadena, which many of the local young people are planning to attend. The C. E. social committee served lunch after services.

Those served were Professor Lewis and wife Herbert Bates, Horace Baldwin of Whittier, Mr. Blain, first tenor; Mr. Whitlock, second tenor; Mr. Telas, first bass and Mr. Perry, second bass; S. Warren Douglas, Mr. Gains and Rev. and Mrs. Armstrong of the church.

LOSES BEES IN FIRE AND HONEY BY HEAT

Frank True was overtaken by some bad fortune last Sunday, the first chapter of which was a fire which partially destroyed his apiary at Alta Vista. The fire occurred at noon during Mr. True's absence at another of his apiaries on the Bixby ranch. Two piles of unused hives were destroyed entirely, besides some stands of bees. The fiery heat doubtless injured the working capacity of many of the bees that were not destroyed.

But the worst calamity was the sequence to the fire. Mr. True was called by telephone to Alta Vista on account of the fire, and in the haste of departure, neglected to cover the hives of the apiary he was leaving. As a consequence of the sudden hot weather tons of honey in the unprotected hives were melted and utterly lost, running out from the hives in streams. These happenings are illustrative of

WOMAN DIES AFTER AWFUL FIRE BURNS

PASADENA, June 2.—Miss Pearl Dobbs rushed into the blazing home of Mrs. Helen E. Helsey yesterday, breaking open a jammed door, which was blocking the escape of Mrs. Kelsey and her daughter, Helen, from the fire. Mrs. Kelsey had lighted a fire with kerosene and was fatally burned. Her daughter grabbed bedclothes and, wrapping them around her mother, attempted to escape with her, but was stopped by the jammed door.

Miss Dobbs, hearing the explosion and screams, ran to the house and succeeded in opening the door and rescuing the women. Mrs. Kelsey died five hours later.

Half a dozen guns were kept in the kitchen by Mr. Kelsey and son, who are hunters, and the cartridges in them were exploding from heat when Miss Hobbs arrived.

California Up In Regimental Record:— Exhibits In Tariff Discussion— Taft Hears Warm Remark

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The regimental record for the year was made by the Fifteenth Infantry, with the Seventeenth Infantry second, and the Seventh Infantry third. Company F, of the Fifteenth Infantry, made the highest score of the companies; Company F, of the Seventh, was second, and Company F, of the Fifteenth, third.

The best record attained was that made by the academic staff of the Military Academy at West Point, the cadets of the first class making the high score. Their record was higher than that of the winning company of the entire army.

If the various exhibits that have been used by senators to illustrate their remarks on the tariff were to be placed on view at the same time, the interior of the Senate Chamber would look like a department store.

Dolliver, of Iowa, was the first to bring actual objects on the floor in order to illuminate his arguments. He produced samples of silk which he handled with as much deftness as a saleslady, but with a different object in view. His purpose was to show that a great deal of cotton enters into the manufacture of some so-called silks, and that that cotton has to pay the same rate as though the fabric was all silk.

McCumber, of North Dakota, who wants lumber put on the free list, produced samples of partly-finished woods to show how cheaply, with the modern machinery now in use, the mills can plane one, two or three sides at one operation.

Daniel, of Virginia, showed a piece of sole leather tanned by the product of his native forests, with only a small percentage of the foreign quebracho in order to show that the latter ought to be kept out by high duties to protect the American makers of tanning extracts.

Penrose, of Pennsylvania, introduced samples of the frame-work of umbrellas, the rod and ribs all made of steel, for the purpose of justifying the slightly increased rate proposed on these articles. Incidentally he announced that the manufacture of umbrellas with wooden sticks had practically been abandoned in this country.

Lodge, of Massachusetts, had an interesting collection of watches to show. Most of them were very small watches, such as ladies wear. The question at issue was whether it would be possible for the manufacturers to stamp upon some part of the works the name of its maker, the name of the importer, and the name of the country in which the article was made. In support of his contention that such a requirement should be insisted upon so that a purchaser in this country should know just what he was buying, Mr. Lodge produced a small medal about the size of a dime, upon which, in perfectly legible characters, was stamped, on one side, the fact that it was made at the United States mint in Philadelphia, and, on the other, the complete Lord's Prayer.

Smoot, of Utah, contributed largely to the gaiety of one day's session, and, incidentally, strongly bolstered up his argument, by exhibiting razors. Upon these the pending bill puts higher duties. Mr. Smoot showed that his razors, which were marked on the box to sell for $3 each, were imported at a cost of less than $12 a dozen, and he declared that it would make no difference to the individual purchaser if the tariff on razors should be increased even 200 or 300 per cent, they would not have to pay any more for them. Mr. Smoot was so earnest in the way in which he brandished his razors under the nose of one of the Southern senators, to whom he had taken it for examination, that he was jokingly accused by a fellow member of having terrorized him into submission. Smoot also showed samples of woolen cloths.

Flint, of California, produced samples of French chinaware which cost, duty paid, at the port of New York, about $10 a set, and which were on sale in Washington stores at $36. This was to illustrate his argument that the tariff was not responsible for the high rates that consumers have to pay so much as the middlemen, the jobbers and the retailers, all of whom have to have their profits and have to calculate on breakages, clerk hire, interest, rents, etc.

But perhaps the most impressive display was that made by Senator Scott, of West Virginia, who is himself a manufacturer of the higher grades of glassware. He had his desk, and those of several other neighboring senators, covered with an exhibition of cheap glassware not made by his own factory. There were water pitchers, bowls, salad dishes and other things, and Scott's explanation of how the price of these articles to the consumer had been reduced since the glass works of this country had been protected by a tariff interested the Senate immensely.

These exhibits have proved so enlightening to senators that it is probable they will be continued when other schedules are under consideration.

A good many folks are now wondering which of the senators will have the nerve to make a display of ladies' stockings when the hosiery schedule is reached.

Mrs. Carry M. Childs, 803 E street, Santa Ana, Cal., says: "I suffered from kidney trouble and backache for a great many years and there was a constant, dull pain across my loins and kidneys which gave me a great deal of misery. I often awoke at night, the pains being so sharp and piercing. I tried numerous remedies but did not succeed in finding relief. I at last saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised for similar trouble and procured a box. They have been of the greatest benefit to me and therefore I do not hesitate to advise their use to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

Good-bye to the Baby

During the Chino-Japanese war the members of one of the missionary families were living in the part of Chemulpo near the barracks where the Japanese were quartered until they could be sent by sea to the front. "In Korea with Marquis Ito," by Dr. George Trumbull Ladd, contains a pathetic little story in connection with this family.

One day a petty officer came up on the porch of the house, uninvited; but after accepting gratefully the cup of tea offered him, being unable to speak any English, he went away, leaving the object of his apparent intrusion quite unexplained.

Soon afterward he returned with some twenty of his comrades, mostly petty officers, accompanying him. And when the hostess was becoming somewhat alarmed at the number for whom she might be expected to furnish tea and cakes, one of the company explained in broken English, that they had come to see the baby, a girl about two years old.

The little one was brought out by the mother and placed in the arms of the speaker, who carried her along the line formed by his comrades and gave each one a chance to see her, to smile at her, and to say a few words to her in an unknown tongue.

On going away, after this somewhat formal paying of respects to "the baby," the Japanese officer still further explained.

"Madam," said he, "tomorrow morning we are going to the front, and we do not expect ever to return. But before we go to die, we wanted to bid good-bye to the baby."

The number of the regiment to which these soldiers belonged was taken note of by the mother. Their expectation came true; they did not return.

Attractions at the Theaters

Temple Theater

In broad day-light, one of the most daring stage robberies of recent times, two highwaymen successfully hold up a six-horse stage, carrying ten or twelve ladies and men. The robbers acted in a quick business-like manner, ordering every one of the passengers to line up and then relieved them of all valuables, then ordered them to re-enter the coach and keep their hands up till they had driven out of sight! At the first stop, the victims of the hold-up spread the report and soon a posse was on their trail, and in a short time found one of the robbers who had been seriously wounded in a fight over the division of the spoils and told before he expired, where the other outlaw could be found. An exciting ride followed, ending in the capture of the other bandit. Such is "The Road Agent" as Manager Roberts shows tonight in moving pictures, and it is one of the best of the season. Other features: "For Her Country's Sake," "The Infernal Machine," "Energetic Street Cleaner," "A Midnight Disturbance," and the big vaudeville number, "Black and Grant." One can not afford to miss this tonight at the Temple Theater.

Advance Notice, Los Angeles Theater, Week of May 31st.

The program at the Los Angeles Theater for the coming week, is undoubtedly the best ever given at that theater. Frank Bush, the $1000 a week laugh-maker heads the bill, followed by the screamingly funny, Mile-a-Minute comedy sketch, "Car One, State-room Two," with Miss Nita Allen and her original company in the cast. Miss Allen made many friends when last here, about two years ago, and is sure to receive a hearty reception on her visit here next week. The Quaker City tour, a quartette composed of four very clever boys, will introduce a novelty act to the theater goers of Los Angeles. Their entire act takes place in a complete blacksmith shop. They sing their songs while shoeing horses, making wagon wheels, repairing harness, ending with a beautiful Anvil Chorus. The Meeh International Trio with Mr. Fred Meeh, champion heavy weight lifter of the world, comes direct from Berlin. Miss Ann Crewe and Co., in a very odd comedy dramatic sketch, "My Lady Raffles." This play is somewhat like Kyrle Bel-yew's famous "Raffles." The part of the burglar being played by a woman in the guise of a man, and has been a tremendous hit in all the large cities of America. Norton and Russel, two very clever Lightning Character Change Artists, and the Boyerscope, with the latest motion pictures, complete the program.

WANTED—THAT LINE OF STEAMERS

As illustrating what a government line of steamers would do for this coast, and especially for Southern California, attention is called to an announcement from San Francisco to the effect that Bates & Chesbrough have negotiated for the purchase of one Standard Oil company's entire fleet of ocean carriers, and that the same will play between that port and New York. This is coupled with the statement that by this line of freighters the shippers of San Francisco can save over $1,000,000 in freight rates as compared with the charges of the transcontinental railroads. Another very significant item is that the shippers of Southern California are now sending from here more than 1200 tons of freight by water to San Francisco, to be there reloaded and shipped to New York.

The great disadvantage under which we labor by not having a line of our own. We are at the present at the mercy of a combination between the railroads and Pacific Mail Steamship lines, and the amount of mercy extended to us is pretty well indicated by the foregoing facts. Having the monopoly of all available wharfage here, they use their advantage to an extent that it pays to send freight from here to be reshipped at San Francisco rather than patronize either the railroads or the allied steamship line.

POLITICAL POLICEMAN

A typical and significant instance of inefficiency on the part of the Los Angeles police department has been brought out in the Poltera case.

A simple minded young fellow of about eighteen years had for some weeks been committing petty burglaries in the suburbs of Los Angeles. He was known to many and the officers were placed upon his trail. He continued his operations as he fancied his needs required, camping in the meantime around the scenes of his operation in perfect security, though the officers were "scouring the country" for him. Then came the murder of little Anna, and the detectives, police, deputy sheriffs and many private sleuths took up the search for this boy. His description was given in the papers, and telegraphed over the country, whilst the above named dignitaries ran hither and yon, following this clue and that, but to no avail. The object of their search was, however, pursuing the even tenor of his vagabond way, ignorant of the fact that he was supposed to be guilty of the awful crime of outrage and murder. His father hearing of the case, came from another state to join in the search, believing the boy innocent of the crime charged by the sleuths who were so hot on his track. Finally he was arrested by the city marshal of Redondo—not, mind you, for the offense above mentioned, but for stealing a ride in a row-boat,—and accidentally it was discovered that he was the much-wanted Ben Elliott, supposed to be the little girl's destroyer. Being caught at last, it is now stated by his pursuers that he is not the man wanted.

These facts are given not because they are at all unusual, but rather for the reason that they are all too common. The history of crime in and around Los Angeles does no credit to the various departments charged with its detection. The announcement that a crime has been committed generally results in a newspaper statement to the effect that the officers "rushed to the spot and scoured the neighborhood, but found no clue." For the most part that is the last of the case, and the net result is that the neighborhood gets "scoured," but just what that means is left to the imagination. If, however, the case is one that excites the public mind, the "scouring" process is kept up as long as it affords interesting reading, the details, clues, suppositions and suspicions being regularly served up for the benefit of the public and of the detectives engaged in the man-hunt.

That politics of the "peanut" variety is the bane particularly of the police department of government there can be little doubt. Men are placed in responsible positions because they or their friends and relatives have a pull with the appointing power. They are not selected because of any peculiar fitness for these places, but to serve some one's selfish personal ends. This being the case it is not to be wondered at that these departments are hampered by incompetency, and that the worst of crimes go unpunished.

Here is one of the sorest spots of municipal government. Crime must be detected and criminals caught before they can be punished. The certainty of punishment is what discourages crime, and conversely the uncertainty of punishment encourages it. In its last analysis the prevention of crime is at least one of the main objects of all government, but as the conditions now are, the taxpayers are not getting their money's worth in the service rendered for this purpose.

Is Honesty the Best Policy?

From the CALIFORNIA WEEKLY

"Is Honesty the Best Policy?" Let us not sidestep the issue, but face it squarely. Let us not draw upon our imaginations for our evidence, but upon our experience.

The old maxim does not, as many suppose, come to us from holy writ, from Shakespeare, from Benjamin Franklin, but from Miguel Cervantes-Saavedra, who lived and died, fought, toiled, spent years in prison, in slavery to the Moors, in office, in litigation and in poverty. He had seen life, and he knew what honesty cost, how rascality prospered. He saw honesty as little practiced as anywhere on earth at a time when villainy was so universal as to be regarded as a joke, and yet he left a maxim that has seen three hundred years of service and still is as fresh as ever.

But let us not seek to "fool" the rising generation with it. If it be not true let us say so. Let us vindicate it only if we honestly may, for honesty is the best policy in teaching morality if nowhere else.

If we apply the maxim to passing bogus checks we are warranted in affirming it true. So also if we apply it to till-tapping, to "knocking down" behind the counter, in order to get money with which to play the races. It may be applied to every form of "peanut" larceny that ever was invented with absolute certainty that time will prove its truth.

But what of the honest daily paper that enters into competition with the paper that makes merchandise of its news columns, that sells its editorial opinions at so much per line? What of the honest lawyer who goes into a case against an opponent who will pack the jury against him if he can, who will suborn perjury through some stool-pigeon intermediary and spirit honest witnesses and documents out of the jurisdiction of the court? What of the weekly paper that tells its patrons the truth about its circulation and forbears to extort patronage as the price of immunity from blackmail? What of the writer who tells the world the things that he believes it ought to know instead of pampering a depraved taste and reducing intellectual delight to mental dissipation? What of the merchant who charges only such a profit as his service to his patrons is reasonably worth and has one price for all customers, whether influential or the humblest of clod-hoppers? Is there a sane person who does not know that strict integrity, in all avenues of life, is a handicap?

What of the grand prizes in the commercial, industrial and financial on and after Jan. 1 of each year, or July 1, and the matter was referred to the district attorney for an opinion.

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors passed an ordinance prohibiting the presence of minors in poolrooms and billiard halls, and prohibiting the playing of any game of chance or cards in poolrooms or billiard halls. This law is effective all over the county except in incorporated cities.

The provision asked for by a petition of 1350 names that the poolrooms and billiard halls be closed from 12 o'clock Saturday night until 6 o'clock Monday was defeated.

The petitioners, with Mr. Melick as spokesman, presented its argument in favor of the entire proposals. Supervisor Smith moved the adoption of the ordinance with the Sunday closing provision included. Moore seconded. Angle proposed an amendment knocking out the Sunday closing. Angle, Linebarger and Moore voted in favor of knocking out the Sunday closing and Smith and MacMullen against it. On the adoption of the ordinance without the Sunday closing provision Smith voted no, the other supervisors aye.

North Side Sewing Club

Yesterday afternoon was devoted by the North Side Sewing Club to one of its pleasant fortnightly meetings, the ladies gathering at the home of Mrs. J. M. Cain, 1706 N. Main street. Mrs. J. W. Elliott assisted Mrs. Cain in entertaining.

Mrs. Remsburg read aloud, from that amusing book, "Sewing Seeds in Danny," while the other ladies busied themselves with their sewing.

Over refreshments of delicious ice cream and cake, served by the hostesses, social conversation waxed animatedly. The ladies of this club have the knack of having a good time whenever they meet.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Meacham, with Mrs. Olive Remsburg assisting in entertaining.

Delightful Auto Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Livesey and two children, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shoemaker, Geo. and Mrs. Peters, W. H. Comstock and wife, left here on Sunday morning for an auto trip that included Pomona, where the party took dinner, and Riverside, where an all-night stay was made. The crowd was in three automobiles and greatly enjoyed the trip, return from which was made by way of Santa Ana Canyon, the party arriving here Monday noon.

They report the journey as a delightful one, without accident or unpleasant happening. George Peters and Jimmie Livesey, each of them, returned with a beautiful high color.

Canton Goes After Prize

Tonight at Pasadena, the Chevaliers of Santa Ana Canton No. 18, I.O.O.F., will compete with Cantons of Covina, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Pomona in a prize drill, the trophy for which is $100. Here's to their success!

Woods-Wilkinson

News of the wedding of Miss Bessie O. Wilkinson of Santa Ana, and Mr. John Woods of Porterville, which took place last evening at the home of Mr. E. C. Frambes, the bride's uncle, will be received with interest and surprise by their many friends.

The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock, the couple attended by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burlew, entering the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. E. C. Frambes, and taking their places beneath a lovely wedding bell of white roses, lilies and fern. Rev. T. C. Miller officiated at the impressive ring ceremony by which Mr. Wood became the husband of one of Santa Ana's most admirable girls.

The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and maidenhair fern and the pretty wedding gown was of white-net-covered silk and voile. The Matron of honor, Mrs. Burlew, wore a similar costume of white. The home was fragrant with quantities of sweet peas, roses and lilies.

The bride, with Mrs. Burlew, graduated with high honors, three years ago this month, from the Santa Ana Hospital, and has won her way securely into the hearts of many friends, who will join in wishing her the happiest of futures.

Mr. Wood is a wealthy ranchman of Porterville, owning extensive acres at that place, and is an excellent partner for the young lady of his choice.

After the ceremony, supper was served in the dining room, with covers laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, Rev. T. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Frambes, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Frambes, Misses Lois, May and Nellie Frambes, Mrs. Henderson Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones and daughters, Nettie and Bessie, Mr. G. B. Hodge, Mrs. Addie Hodge and daughters, Grace and Mary Eva, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Burlew, Misses Emily Northrup and La Veta Comstock.

Following the wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Woods left for Los Angeles, the bride's going-away suit being of smoke-gray, with hat and gloves to match. After a week or so at Catalina, Mr. and Mrs. Woods will return here for a visit with friends and relatives before leaving for their future home in Porterville.

A romantic bit of history is attached to the beautiful white mohair rug upon which the bridal couple stood last night during the ceremony. The rug belongs to Mrs. Clyde Walker, and had been used before for fifteen other weddings, that of Mr. and Mrs. Walker being the first. It might well be entitled a wedding rug.

Many handsome and useful gifts of cut glass and china were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Woods, and with them go many good wishes.

"The Kleptomaniac" Tonight

The young ladies of St. Elizabeth's Guild of the Church of the Messiah, are well up in the lines of the vivacious farce, "The Kleptomaniac," which they will present at G.A.R. Hall this evening. The play is said to be one of most amusing quality and the parts are well taken by the various young ladies.

A sale of fancy work and home-made candy will prove an attractive supplement to the interesting play, and will no doubt have a generous patronage.

The profits of the affair will be applied to the Guild hall fund, in which the young ladies are deeply interested, and for which they have been working zealously.

The Salad Club

The Salad Club met with Miss Eva Bradford last evening, and the usual dainty tea, with its special dish of salad, which in this case was of tasty asparagus, was enjoyed.

Miss Elva Utley was a guest of the club. Gay conversation and music passed away the evening following the tea.

Basketball Games for Y.M.C.C.

Tomorrow night at 7 o'clock the girls' basketball team of the High school and of Third street school will play at match game on the Y.M.C.C. grounds. It is likely that there will also be a game between the boys of the two schools. Ten cents admission will be charged, the money to be devoted to paying for the electric lights recently strung around the club grounds. A generous attendance is hoped for.

Mrs. Winbigler's Dinner

Mrs. Theo. Winbigler was the hostess last evening at a delightful four course, 7 o'clock dinner, at which a number of old friends were entertained.

The residence has recently been remodeled, making an extremely handsome home, with ample room for pleasant social functions.

A vase of fragrant pink and white carnations was the sole decoration of the beautiful living room. The table decorations were red carnations and asparagus ferns. Covers were laid for Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Miller, Messrs. and Mesdames J. M. Quick, C. W. Burns, J. M. Raugh, Dr. I. D. and Mrs. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Winbigler. An evening of sociability followed the dinner.

A Delightful Luncheon

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Whitted was gay yesterday with the presence of charmingly gowned women who were the guests of Mrs. Whitted at a choice six-course luncheon served at 1 o'clock. It was a yellow luncheon, the table favors being yellow paper roses and the decorations being of Scotch broom, decorations being of Scotch broom, decorations being of Scotch broom.

The Woman's Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mosbaugh, with Mrs. Flora Pyle presiding. The roll call was responded to with sentiments on "The Temple We Build." The new club programs were distributed and the question of club badges considered. After discussion suitable badges were agreed upon and the committee continued to secure them. Mrs. Sarah Wilcox was taken into membership in the club.

Mrs. Saran Fraser presented an able paper "The Greatest Good to the Greatest Number," which brought forth an interesting and free discussion.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Bradbury in Orange on June 8, and on June 15 the club members will visit Mrs. Carrie Bent at Prado, these ladies having exchanged dates for entertaining the club.

Mrs. Fiske in "Salvation Nell" Many Santa Ana admirers of Mrs. Minnie Madden Fiske will doubtless make an effort to see that famous actress when she appears next week at the Auditorium in Los Angeles, where she will play in her latest success, "Salvation Nell," the heroine of which is said to furnish an extraordinary and vivid character part for Mrs. Fiske.

WALNUT CROP WILL BE SHORT

North End Growers Estimate
Decrease of Twenty-five to Forty Per Cent.

FULLERTON, June 1.—According to the statements of many leading growers, the walnut crop of northern Orange county will be at least 30 per cent short of the output last year. Some growers believe it will be 40 per cent short.

L. P. Drake of Fullerton, has talked to many growers and he estimates the shortage at from 30 to 35 per cent.

J. B. Neff of Anaheim, State Director of Farmers' Institutes, estimates the shortage at between 25 and 30 per cent. Mr. Neff says the crop will be light in every walnut producing section in Southern California. Ralph McFadden, of Placentia, estimates that the crop in that district will be short 33 per cent.

A. T. Pendleton of Placentia, says the shortage will be between 30 and 35 per cent, the soft shells running lighter than the hard shells. He reports that the blight is showing up very little.

William Crowther of Placentia, a director of the Golden Belt Association, estimates the shortage at 33 per cent, and Abe Pritchard, of the Fullerton-Placentia Walnut Growers' Association, the shortage at 33 per cent.

For the week ending last night, the following shipments were made from Fullerton in carload lots: Oranges, Placentia association, 7; Benchley Fruit Company, 4; C. C. Chapman, 2; H. F. Dalrymple, 9. Cabbages: California Vegetable Union 8; M. M. Cobb, 4; Pinkham & McKivett, 3.

H. W. Krug has purchased from E. J. Denkle, A. Goodwin and Miss Gregg, the three 25-foot lots on North Spadra street, opposite the postoffice, and will erect a brick building, which will be cut up into store rooms.

HOT WEATHER COOKING

—With the approach of summer, the woman who must do much of her own cooking turns to electricity for relief. It is surprising the number of ways in which electricity is adapted to the household tasks.

There are electrical cooking devices which may be used on the dining table, and the dishes be prepared actually while you wait. The chafing dish we have with us always, but it is more or less of a nuisance with alcohol as a fuel. With the electric chafing dish there is no alcohol to spill over or burn out at the wrong time, nor is there any danger of setting something afire, and a uniform heat may be maintained as long as it is wanted. For a supper at home, or when entertaining friends, it is not necessary to go into the kitchen to prepare oysters, rarebit or any of the delicious dishes suitable for the occasion. These may all be prepared on the dining table, the hostess or some obliging man presiding over the cooking.

If coffee is to be served, the electric percolator will automatically make the coffee without the intervention of any one. The ground coffee and water are first accurately measured and put into the percolator. The heat is then turned on, and as the temperature rises, the water is forced up and automatically drips over the coffee grounds until the strength is fully extracted. The coffee may then be kept hot until the last cup is called for, but turning the heat regulator to the point where the minimum current will be supplied.

Coffee is served from the percolator by a faucet. Another improvement for hot weather is the electrical refrigerator. The ice man is a creature of the past in the electric household. The refrigerator is kept cold by artificial means, and operated by electrical appliances, at the same time freezing enough ice for daily table use.

The cost of electricity for cooking is a very important item to those contemplating its use. The impression is abroad generally that electricity is very expensive, and the first question always is, What will it cost? The cost is dependent to some extent upon conditions. The operator, too, must be taken into consideration in estimating the cost, for one may use the maximum and another the minimum of heat to secure the same results.

It is stated by persons of authority upon the subject that if electricity be used with the same care as gas, and with proper attention to the controlling gauge, it will cost no more than gas as a fuel.

One other erroneous belief is that a person using electricity is liable to receive a shock in handling the utensils. There is no danger of this, as thorough insulation has been provided to prevent possible injury by contact with the current. The current is turned on and off by switches, and the heat is controlled by regulators. Any person of average intelligence may be instructed in its manipulation and the attachment of the various utensils.

Rose in the Buggy

FULLERTON, June 1.—As J. W. Rose and wife were passing through this city, this morning, they met with quite a serious accident. They were in a buggy and stopped to water the horse on South Spadra street. Mr. Rose removed the bridle and the horse started off at a rapid pace with Mrs. Rose still in the vehicle and her husband hanging onto the reins. He finally lost his hold, fell under the horse and the buggy passed over him. The horse ran for a block and then was stopped. Mrs. Rose suffered only from fright but her husband was unconscious for an hour. He will recover soon.

Speaking Of Records

It beats all what a cackling One Hen will set up when it lays One Egg. And it is the hen with one lone chicken that makes the most fuss.

Far be it from me to even to attempt to depreciate the records acquired by my competitors. But—unless you're quoting facts correctly you're not Quoting Facts. A tire ad. last week gave the Los Angeles-San Diego record to the Rambler. Stop! pause, friends. Kisselkar holds the Los Angeles-San Diego record, and has held it for many moons despite the scores of attempts made to beat it. Time, 4 hours, 16½ minutes.

Before we let go of the subject, here are a few more records held by the Shettler lines. Kisselkar holds:

Winner of the six hour motor derby at Ascot Park. The severest test in track competition in the west.

Los Angeles to Newhall, 28 miles, time 47 minutes.

Los Angeles to Bakersfield, 151 miles, time 5 hours 43 minutes.

Los Angeles to Victorville, 105 miles, time 3 hours 50 minutes.

Los Angeles to Daggett, 167 miles, time 8 hours 16 minutes.

Los Angeles to Santa Ana, 38 miles, time 51 minutes.

Los Angeles to Capistrano, 69 miles, time 1 hour 30 minutes.

Los Angeles to Oceanside, 98 miles, time 3 hours.

Los Angeles to San Diego, 142 miles, time 4 hours 16½ minutes.

Kisselkar established a new track record at Lordsburg last week, 10 seconds faster than any preceding record.

Then there is REO, the best selling, most reliable, most popular car in California. The Santa Barbara endurance run, won by Reo, is ancient history, but it stands.

Reo is the only car that has made the round trip to Phoenix, Ariz.—one of the severest tests ever imposed on a car.

Reo is the only car to make the round trip to Imperial—another hard test.

Reo has won a good many races and lost a few, but it is never afraid to try.

You read how a Baby Reo lost its competitor in the Pomona-San Diego race, and won, hands down.

You probably noticed that a Baby Reo, given a fifty-yard handicap in a race at Lordsburg against several two-cylinder cars, actually won the race by a lead 50 per cent greater than the handicap. Some class to that.

Apperson Jackrabbit is a comparative newcomer in Southern California, but its mile-a-minute record in the Altadena-Pasadena hill climb, where it defeated several of the more or less "fastest stock cars in America," shows what it can do.

A Selling Record

Is a pretty good thing to have around if you are selling automobiles. In January, 1909, I sold 47 cars; in February, 22; in March, 52; in April, 42; and in May, up to Friday morning 60 cars; a total of 223 cars, or a car and a half a day. "A live agent will sell you a live car."

So much for records. In the meantime I am making immediate deliveries of BABY REO RUNABOUT, 10-h.p. Price $550 f.o.b. Los Angeles.

TENNIS MEET ON SATURDAY

High School Teams Are to Gather on Courts at Orange at 2:30 O'clock

The Orange county high schools will hold their annual tennis tournament next Saturday on the Orange high school courts. Tennis is a great game among the various high schools in Orange county, and from the interest taken among these schools it is expected that at least four schools will send four teams. Orange will enter its best players, as will Huntington Beach, Anaheim and Fullerton. Orange will be represented by Clayton and Buchanan in the doubles, and Pine in the singles.

Owing to the fact that none of these schools have many women players, there will be no play for girl students. Orange high school is expected to carry away honors, as it is conceded to have the best players in the men's department, although Anaheim will give the Orange players a hard run for honors, as several fast players are connected with that institution.

Fullerton, although running third in the last tournament, has shown great improvement and no doubt will be a strong factor for racquet honors.

Clayton is a brilliant, erratic contestant, who has the qualities of being a fast player, but during the past two years his playing has undergone a marked change.

The contests will start sharply at 2:30 o'clock.

CATARRH MICROBES

A Dead Microbe is the Best Microbe —Hymel Kills Them All

Hymel (pronounced High-o-mee) is a killer of catarrh germs, because when you breathe it in, its antiseptic and germicide properties reach every nook and crevice of the mucous membrane, from the mouth and nose deep into the lungs.

Hymel brings the Australian forests of pine and eucalyptus to your home. It is made of the active principles extracted from these trees.

No one who lives in or near these forests suffers from catarrh. No one who breathes in Hymel, the real forest air of Australia, will have catarrh for long after the treatment starts.

If you want to cure catarrh, croup, bronchitis, coughs, colds, asthma, hay fever, or relieve consumption, try Hymel, the common-sense cure, the cure that reaches the spot.

A complete Hymel outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs only $1.00, and extra bottles of Hymel, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Sold and guaranteed in Santa Ana, Cal., by the Rowley Drug Co.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET
The berry market was a sorry sight yesterday morning, and the cause for much lamentation. The heat, which is doing many fruits and vegetables good in bringing them to maturity, has cooked the berries right on the vines and bushes. Raspberries are particularly affected. The fruit is always one of the most delicate to handle and most easily harmed by changes of weather, and the heat has shriveled the berries until they are good practically only for canning purposes. The prices on them declined to 3 and 4 cents a basket, and in larger quantities to 1 a crate, as low as they have ever been in this section. Strawberries were badly damaged by the weather, being soft and mushy a few hours after having been picked and shipped in. They sold as low as 25 cents a crate. Blackberries were scarce. Gooseberries brought about 5 cents a pound, while currants were also down.

Eggs were in good demand, but locals were about the only sellers. There were no changes in quotations and receipts for three, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, were only 552 cases. Eastern fresh are selling sufficiently to fill in the lack of locals. Storage eggs are not moving at all as yet.

Butter advanced to 55 cents per two-pound square on creamery extras, while firsts went up to 52½ cents. Warm weather, smaller production, and the fact that Los Angeles is dependent on local supply, were given as reasons for the higher figures. Cooking butter advanced in sympathy, from 20 to 22 cents a pound. Receipts were 56,997 pounds. Cheese was active in Eastern varieties and also in Northern fresh. Local anchor, Young American and hand cheese went up 1 cent, recovering thereby the 2-cent decline of two weeks ago. Receipts, 3807 pounds.

Potatoes were unchanged. The market was fairly steady on all but locals, which declined to $1.10 from $1.25 per lug box. The hundred pound quotation on new spuds runs from $2 to $2.50, under that on the northern spuds. Only 280 sacks were received. Onions were unaltered, and 536 sacks arrived in the past few days. Local sweet potatoes were sufficient to fill the call for them. Receipts were light.

The first plums of the season were brought in from Imperial Valley. They were a small red variety and sold at $2 per basket, four baskets to the crate. The first peaches are expected this week, which will also make the fresh deciduous fruit list complete. Royal Annes were the best selling cherries on the list. The cherry market was almost entirely dependent on white varieties, the first blacks being about gone. Prices were a trifle lower. Apricots were unchanged.

Yellow tail, bonita, barracuda, shad and carp from the north, sand dabs, king fish and other small fry, all helped to fill the fish market so full that the demand would not take care of the arrivals.

MRS. MOULTON WINS PIANO IN MISSING LETTER CONTEST

Mrs. Clara Moulton, 616 East Second street, Santa Ana, is the winner of the $350 Howard piano in the Baldwin Missing Letter Contest conducted by W. J. Cozad's Music Store, 112 East Fourth street.

The award was made this morning by a committee consisting of W. B. Tedford, G. E. Shriver and J. P. Baumgartner.

There were several hundred contestants, less than a dozen of whom had the absolutely correct solution.

Of these Mrs. Moulton's was decided by the committee to be the best in form and appearance, taking into consideration arrangement, penmanship, clearness of statement and absolute

Experts Endorse a New Cooking Fat. "Marion Harland," Mrs. Janet M. Hill, and Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, are three cooking authorities whose names are familiar to almost every housewife. Each has her own distinctive methods of work, but it is interesting to note that on the all-important question of a cooking fat, they are unanimous in recommending COTTOLENE. "Marion Harland" says of COTTOLENE: "It has given complete satisfaction." Mrs. Hill says: "Very satisfactory; glad to recommend it." Mrs. Rorer says: "A much more healthful product than lard."

With such authority behind it, every housekeeper will be safe in giving COTTOLENE at least a trial. It is a vegetable oil shortening, purer and more wholesome than lard—and it is cheaper, too, one-third less being required.

conformity to the rules of the contest. One of the greatest stumbling blocks for contestants was Newport. Nine out of ten gave New York for No. 1 when it should have been Newport, according to the solution filed with the committee. Of course either is correct and to that extent it was a guessing contest. The same conditions applied in the case of Pittsburgh. More than two thirds of the contestants gave this as Portsmouth; probably reasoning that Portsmouth would be chosen by the manager of the contest because it is not so well known as Pittsburgh. Another probable reason why contestants did not give Pittsburgh is that many do not recognize the spelling of it with an "h."

Some solutions were absolutely correct with the exception of one misspelled word; others were wrong only in the placing of Rockford where Richmond should have appeared in the order of the list; still others were wrong only in some other minor detail.

Mr. Cozad will be pleased to show to any contestant the full correct solution and point out the contestant's error.

Among those whose solutions were especially attractive were Mrs. S. M. Wilcox of North Main street, Santa Ana; Minnie A. Pearson, 1516 Willis street, Santa Ana; Mrs. Lillian A. Harris, 805 G street, Santa Ana; Miss Mary E. Ingraham, Fullerton; Mrs. A. F. Kearns, Fullerton; Albert Litton, Fullerton; J. L. Walker, Anaheim; Elsie M. Morrow, 602 East Pine street, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. John Swanner, 201 Sixteenth street, Santa Ana; Grace C. Vincent, Fullerton; Samuel E. Briggs, 493 South Glassell street, Orange.

Mrs. Moulton, the winner of the piano, was much surprised when seen at her home today. She said: "We have a piano, but of course will be glad to get a new one. We were interested in the contest—my husband and my little boy and girl and I—but we never thought of winning. We just went into it for the fun of the thing. It was interesting and instructive."

CAR HIT AUTO HORSE WHIRLS

Fire Torn From Machine Stopped on Tracks—Occupants of Buggy Spilled

An automobile bumped by a car and a tire torn off and a horse frightened by the turmoil of conflict between the automobile and car, throwing occupants of a buggy to the street, were incidents that occurred at the Fourth street crossing of the Santa Fe tracks yesterday evening. J. W. Sauer of South Sycamore street, was in his automobile with another man. A train of freight was crossing the street on one track, and a train of empties was being backed on another. Sauer drove on to the track along which the empties were coming, and there stopped. Before he could get his machine out of the way the first car, an oil car, struck the front of the machine, tearing a tire from the rim.

Near the place Mrs. T. J. Houghton with two children, were sitting in a buggy waiting for the street to clear. When the car struck the automobile, the horse became frightened and tried to turn short in the street. Mrs. Houghton and the children were thrown out, and though all were bruised, none was badly hurt. A shaft of the buggy was broken.

KAMAMA AMAZES PUBLIC

Cuts Shirt From Injured Arm— Gives Away Money—Makes Deaf Hear—Young Man Performs Miracles Before the Crowd's Very Eyes

—Last night thousands of Santa Ana people congregated at Fourth street and Broadway to see and hear the Great Kamama,—so much talk and newspaper notoriety about this man and the wonders he has done in other cities that he has visited. Reports state that Kamama has given away thousands of dollars to the poor. He certainly amazed the public last night when he invited the sick, cripple and afflicted to come upon the platform and test the healing power of his medical discoveries. There was a great rush, all eager to be first.

Deaf Made to Hear The first to respond to the invitation was Mr. Snerdager, a cement worker, who lives at 515 Bush street, who has been deaf for eight or ten years. Kamama applied one of his

SOUTH SANTA ANA PLACE

The New 2-Acre Villa Home Tract

This fine sub-division has just been platted. It is located on the east side of Main street just south of the sugar factory and on the new electric car line. It is without doubt the best located land for home sites that is offered in the vicinity of the sugar factory and has been each of which fronts on a well graded and graveled street. The soil is rich and is well adapted to growing vegetables and berries of all kinds.

The lots, each of which contains 2 acres, are numbered in regular order, beginning with lot No. 1 and on up; lot No. 1 being the choicest, lot No. 2 second choice, and so on up to the highest number. It is our purpose to sell the lots in their numerical order.

There is not a great deal of difference in the real value of these lots and all of them will be sold at the same price.

The Price is $500 Per Lot part down, balance arranged to suit purchaser.

Land in this vicinity has been selling at from $250 to $300 per acre in large tracts. Think then what it means to get these choice 2 acre lots at less than acreage prices, and for less than you would have to pay for a little 50 foot city lot.

Don't delay, buy early and get a choice location. They won't last long at this price. See any Santa Ana Realty dealer or, owner.
